FIVE ON TRIAL IN HERRIN MURDER

QUARTER MILLION PAYABLE IN WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

Maturity on Bonds to Put Cash in Circulation
Here January 1.

CHRISTMAS RUSH ON

Special Arrangements Made to Handle Excess Parcel Business for Xmas.

$250,000 worth of War Saving
Stamps are payable here January 1.
December postal business is higher than that of past months.

Christmas business in postal department promises to be greatest of recent years.

Postal Officials are to enlarge parcel post section for Christmas season.

Additional employees are to assist force of 21 now working during the Christmas season.

Government urges people to place War Saving Stamps in hands of post offices now in order to guard against delay in receiving money.

People are urged to put money
from War Saving Stamps into treasury certificates.

Guard against fakers in disposing of money to be received from stamps.

This was the gist of interesting newsy notes at the post office, as announced today by Wilbur P. Lee, assistant postmaster of Ada postoffice.

Mr. Lee said that the estimate of $250,000 was not given as very definite or accurate. He was of the opinion that it would be much above that amount. People who want to continue saving their money should invest the receipts from stamps, which mature January 1, 1923, in treasury certificates. The difference will be paid now, if the stamps are turned over to postal authorities.

He expressed the opinion that the rush to cash stamps would congest
the postal system of the country. It will be necessary to return the stamps to the treasury department before money can be obtained for them, he said.

Special Christmas Plans

The building just east of the post office is to be rented during the Christmas season for incoming parcel post. There it will be routed and sent out to the people through the local office. This is being done to eliminate the usual congestion which incoming and outgoing parcel post of the Christmas season causes.

"We are to use three new men during the Christmas season," he said. "There are at present twenty-one on the local postal force, including rural carriers, city carriers,
clerks and officials."

The usual business for December has shown an increase, Mr. Lee stated. Exclusive of the Christmas business, the local post office probably will do one of the biggest months' work of the year.

People do not wrap Christmas packages sufficiently, he said. Clerks have started complaining that packages are tied in poor wrapping paper, weak strings, have poor addresses written in pencil with no return address. Clerks are required to rewrap packages and to guard against damage to parcel post, especially during the holiday rush.

The large amount of money to be turned loose in Ada the first of the year is expected to be a stimulant to business. Postal officials do not think that a great number of certificates were cashed in before they reached maturity.

Most of the people who bought them during the war still are holding the "Baby Bonds" it is believed.

Consolidation Army and Navy Department Urged on President

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Consolidation of the army and navy department in a department of national defense designed to function under a cabinet member with assistants in charge of the army and navy has been definitely recommended to President Harding by Walter F. Brown, head of the committee appointed to prepare a plan of government re-organization.

The president is giving serious consideration to this and other recommendations submitted by Mr.
Brown and may have them before congress within a week or two accompanied by a special message expressing the opinion of the administration on each of the exchanges
suggested.

Rosa Would Quit House of Disaster

With the menacing attitude that "he had killed more women than he had let live, Rosa Akers negress, believes that it would be suicide not to petition for a divorce from her rowdy husband, Will Akers, according to information filed in the court
clerk's office late Tuesday afternoon.

Rosa points out several reasons, other than her husband's warring characteristics, as just cause for the disruption of their love nest.

Rosa points out that her husband is a habitual drunkard and firmly maintains "that recently his thirst has evolved from bad to worse." She states that he gets drunk every time he can get whiskey, which is about three times a week.

The petitioner affirms that the last cord of family ties was broken when her husband banished a pistol above her head and sounded out his militaristic intentions.

She also maintained that she was her husband's only means of support.

SEEVERS STRIKES AT OUSTER SUIT

Attorneys File Motion to Quash Ouster Charge
Filed by King.

(By the Associated Press)
TULSA, Dec. 13.—A motion to quash the ouster action against County Attorney W. F. Seever
instituted by request of the attorney general's office will be made this afternoon when hearing before District Judge Albert C. Hunt, it was announced by John B. Turner, former chief justice of the state supreme court who represented the county attorney.

TULSA, Dec. 13.—C. W. King and
N. W. Gore, assistants and Clark Pierson, clerk, are here from the capitol as representatives of the attorney general's office for the hearing today of their motion to suspend W. F. Seever, county attorney, from office pending determination on a removal charge filed against him.

Seever returned here Monday after an absence of several days from the city. He stated that he is feeling fit and ready for the trial.
Woodson Norvell who made an extended argument last week when the 26 whisky cases came up in county court for hearing, upholding Seever's action, will be one of Seever's counsel.

It is generally conceded that the result of the preliminary hearing will be a permanent victory for the winning side. Seever's term expires in 18 days. For that reason the removal case is not likely to be heard before he goes out of office. Failure on the motion to suspend him therefore will mean that the removal charges would likely fail. Suspension now would be equal to removal.

Removal charges were filed against Seever December 3 by King and Gore, acting for the attorney general, after a two day's investigation of the conduct of his office.

dent of the company. His father was

STONEWALL SWEEP BY COSTLY FIRE

Three Buildings Blazed by Flames in Early Morning Disaster

STONEWALL, Okla., Dec. 13.— (Special)—Fire early this morning
wiped out three brick business houses on the north side of Broadway. The three buildings were the
J. D. Crawford grocery, the Wayne Truitt building, occupied by a meat market and M. C. Barberousse, and the Hollingsworth building, occupied by a restaurant.

According to the best information available, the fire started in the restaurant about 1 o'clock this morning and spread to the other buildings before the alarm was given.
All efforts to save the property proved futile. The loss is estimated at $15,000 with about half that much insurance.

The origin of the fire is not known, the belief being that a defective flue was the cause.

Those down town at 11 o'clock report there was no indication of fire at that hour.

No announcements about re-building have been given out, but it is thought at least one of the buildings will be re-built immediately.

Enlisted Navy Personnel Same.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—An enlisted personnel during the fiscal vided for in the navy budget carrying a total of $293,896,538 or approximately half a million dollars

less than year, reported to the house today.

NO TRACE FOUND OF MISSING ARMY FLIERS

(By the Associated Press)
PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 13.—
Search for Colonel Francis C. Marshall and Lieut. C. L. Webber, lost aviators, today was assuming the preparation of a long campaign including a methodic combing of the desert and mountain territory of Southern Arizona and northern Mexico by land and air forces.

During the past five days the search for the aviators who disappeared last Thursday en route from San Diego to Tucson has been spasmodic in nature with speed as its ruling motive. Yesterday airmen made further flights into Mexico and cavalry and infantry conducted a search into the mountains
south of Tucson.

EL PASO, Dec. 13.—Three of the five airplanes which left San Antonio Tuesday morning to join in the search for the missing aviators, Col. Marshall and Lieutenant Webber, arrived here yesterday.
The other two planes crashed on their way here, it was announced today at headquarters of the Twelfth Observation Squadron.

Miners Deny Rumor

(By the Associated Press)
MUSKOGEE, Dec. 13.—Administration officials of the United Mine Workers of Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas said here today that they had no reports to substantiate the claims that they had been defeated in yesterday's elections. They say the result of the ballot will not be known for several days.

PROGRESSIVES TO ORGANIZE STATES

Speakers Declare Parties
Owned and Controlled
by Wall Street.

(By the Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 13.—Delegates to the second conference for progressive political activities were leaving for their homes today to perfect state organizations for the nomination and election of candidates, either through "primaries"
of the old parties or by independent political action as set forth in the program of organization adopted
at the two day convention here.

Formation of a third party was defeated at the close of the session last night after a prolonged debate in which many speakers characterized the republican and democratic parties as "owned and financed by Wall Street."

William H. Johnson of Washington, president of the machinists union, declared that "much had been accomplished in welding together the farmer and labor organizations for united political activity and the work of setting up organizations in all states would follow shortly."

Other leaders expressed gratification and predicted successes in the progressive political field.

CLEMENCEAU SAILS FOR FRANCE; MISSION ENDED

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—His speaking mission ended, Georges Clemenceau, war time premier of France, sailed for home today on the Steamship Paris, declaring he would return to America again
"but only as a ghost."

The aged statesman who closed his strenuous tour with a short speech before the American Commission for Devastated France, last night appeared in fine health and rare good humor as he took his place on the upper deck to watch
New York vanish behind him.

Just before the Paris cast off the Tiger kissed Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson on both cheeks, laughingly enjoining her not to "dare tell her husband."

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson were Clem-enceau's hosts during his stay here
last month.

Vets Pay off; Legion Drive Big Success

Two-hundred hesitant Legionnaires were drafted into service in the local post through the pressing measures of the strong arm committee, it was announced by Legion officers
late today.

The various business houses of the city were routed at will today and occupants, who were formerly subjects of Uncle Sam's militaristic endeavors, cruelly hurried to the breezy confines of a wire cage, situated on the corner of Broadway and Main.

The activity of the Legion-naire squad became so intense later in the day that the city barracks was brought into service.

After a sufficient stay in the city jail, victims were herded
before the Legion bar, where a continued string of convictions
were meted out with fines, aggregating Legion dues, were accepted.

The old hoodlum wagon served its purpose today.

POINCARÉ SHOWS FRENCH CLAIMS

States Government Retains Right of Free Hand
in German Deal.

(By the Associated Press)
PARIS, Dec. 13.—Premier Poincaré as the resumption of the parliamentary debate on the French foreign policy will announce that the government retains the right to use a free hand in seizing securities for the German debt. However, he will not specify what this security will be nor will he give a detailed account of his plans.

The premier asserted last night he would speak either spontaneously
or in reply to interpretation of the "fresh postponement of the occupation of the Ruhr," of which Leon Daudet and others have given notice.

"I never said I thought of occupying the Ruhr or taking such security," the premier said. "I do not know exactly what we would choose. If we did we would be very careful not to cry it from the house
tops."

PARIS, Dec. 13.—The French cabinet this morning approved the attitude taken on the reparations question by Premier Poincaré at the recent London conference of premiers after hearing M. Poincaré's report of the meeting. It also expressed agreement with him regarding the declaration to be made in the chamber of deputies on Friday when it is expected the government will be called upon to reply to an interpretation.

Farm Laborer Held Charged With Dual Murder of Texans

NEW CASTLE, Ind., Dec. 13.—
Ben Brookshire, 23 years old, farm hand, who was lodged in the county jail here yesterday following the discovery of the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer, still denied all knowledge of the crime early today.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer were found on their farm near Middletown with their heads crushed. A small ax, which authorities believe was used by the slayer, was found in the room near Mrs. Shaffer's body.

Brookshire could not give a definite outline of his movements last Tuesday. Officers said the couple probably had been murdered on Wednesday night of last week.

10 Days are Left for Xmas Shopping

Weather forecasters predicted
colder weather for Atlantic states
with the exception of the Florida
peninsula, another disturbance on
the California coast and a continuance of the sub-zero and near zero
temperatures in northwest, plain and midwest states.

In Chicago the temperature early
today registered 8 degrees above
zero with moderate winds and rising temperature predicted during the
day. The same prediction was made for Illinois indicating a relief from
the coldest weather of the winter
that arrived yesterday with the eastern trend of the cold wave.

BOTH STATE AND DEFENSE FINISH COURT ARGUMENT

Prosecutor Declares Case Involves Murder and not Labor Question.

WOMEN AT HEARING

Defense Counsel to Put Mine Leader on Stand to Back Statement.

(By the Associated Press)
MARION, Ill., Dec. 13.—Both the prosecution and the defense
completed their opening statements to the jury at the morning session of the trial of five men charged with murder in connection with the Herrin riots and introduction of testimony by the state began at the start of the afternoon session.

Before a crowded courtroom,
which contained a scattered handful of women and many farmers and miners in overall from the country, Delos Duty, state's attorney declared that the only question before the jury was one of pure murder and not any issue resulting from warfare between capital and labor.

A. W. Kerr, chief counsel for the defense, in reply to this statement, declared that he would put Frank Farrington, head of the Illinois
mine workers on the stand to testify that the Herrin killings were the inevitable result of the contest between capital and labor and the use by the latter of hired gunmen
and thugs to enforce their will.

MARION, Ind., Dec. 13.—States
Attorney Delos Duty, in his opening statement today to the jury trying five men charged with murder in connection with the Herrin mine
killings, charged that Ois Clark,
one of the defendants, in an argument with Oscar Howard, declared all the non-union employees of the Lester strip mine should be killed.

Hugh Willis, a district official of the United Mine Workers of America arrived during the course of the argument, Duty declared.

"The only thing to do is take them out and kill every one of them," Duty charges Clark with having replied to Howard, when the latter stated the non-union men should be freed as "they laid down their arms."

Duty asserted Clark and Howard shot Superintendent McDowell of the strip mine after Clark struck him over the head.

MARION, Ill., Dec. 13.—Testimony to show five men charged
with murder in connection with the Herrin mine killings had no part in the riot but were elsewhere at the time of the killings was promised by A. W. Kerr, chief counsel of the Illinois mine workers in his opening statement to the jury in the first of the mine riots trial here today.

The five men are charged with the death of Howard Hoffman, one of the twenty non-union men killed in the outbreak.

Mr. Kerr declared the killing of the non-union men was the result of an "invasion of Williamson county by armed guards" and the "manifested brutality culminated in the ruthless murder of three union coal miners."

COLD WAVE CONTINUES RAMPAGE OVER COUNTRY

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—Winter's first cold wave that held the northwest in sub-zero temperatures for several days and has extended to the Atlantic coast and as far south as the tip of the Pacific coast and extreme southern Florida, continued today with slight relief to some sections.

Weather forecasters predicted
colder weather for Atlantic states
with the exception of the Florida
peninsula, another disturbance on
the California coast and a continu-
ance of the sub-zero and near zero
temperatures in northwest, plain and
midwest states.

In Chicago the temperature early
today registered 8 degrees above
zero with moderate winds and rising temperature predicted during the
day. The same prediction was made
for Illinois indicating a relief from
the coldest weather of the winter
that arrived yesterday with the
eastern trend of the cold wave.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

The passing of John Wanamaker removes the last of a group of American merchant kings who revolutionized the mercantile business through improved methods. A. T. Stewart and Marshall Field were two other notable members of the group, but both died many years ago. Wanamaker lived to a ripe old age to see the soundness of his ideas proved by being adopted universally by the business men of America. The department store was his idea and around it he built a business worth millions, although he started with almost no capital.

Wanamaker was also a strong believer in the effectiveness of printer's ink. He spent several millions of dollars for advertising in his day, but these brought him still more millions. In former times almost anything was considered good enough for an ad, but Wanamaker made advertising a science.

However, it was not his mercantile success alone upon which his reputation rests. Wanamaker was a sincere Christian worker and at one time taught the largest Sunday School class in the United States. He stood for honesty in government and had more than one conflict with the grafters who plundered Philadelphia and the state of Pennsylvania. Although his own fortune was made he never forgot that he owed a duty to his fellowman and this led to his taking a lively interest in public affairs. In short, Wanamaker was a fine type of American manhood.

A PONTOTOC COUNTY DINNER

Some years ago we attended a big spread that the A. and M. College put on for the state press association. It was some dinner, too, and every item on the menu was produced in Oklahoma. Even the salt which we used was an Oklahoma product. However, Pontotoc county can supply just as sumptuous a meal on short notice. To begin with any kind of meat one might wish can be had here. Then there is the flour for bread and meal for corn-bread. If the dinner should be given during the growing season, just think of the variety of fruits and vegetables that could be put on that table, every one grown here at home. Of course we don't have any sugar plantations here, but plenty of syrup and honey could be had and that is good enough for anybody. If the spread should be held in the winter canned goods of all kinds could be brought from the cellars so that nothing would be lacking to make the event a big success. When the convention hall is completed and Ada entertains some distinguished gathering we would like to see a dinner of this kind put on just as a demonstration of what Pontotoc county can do.

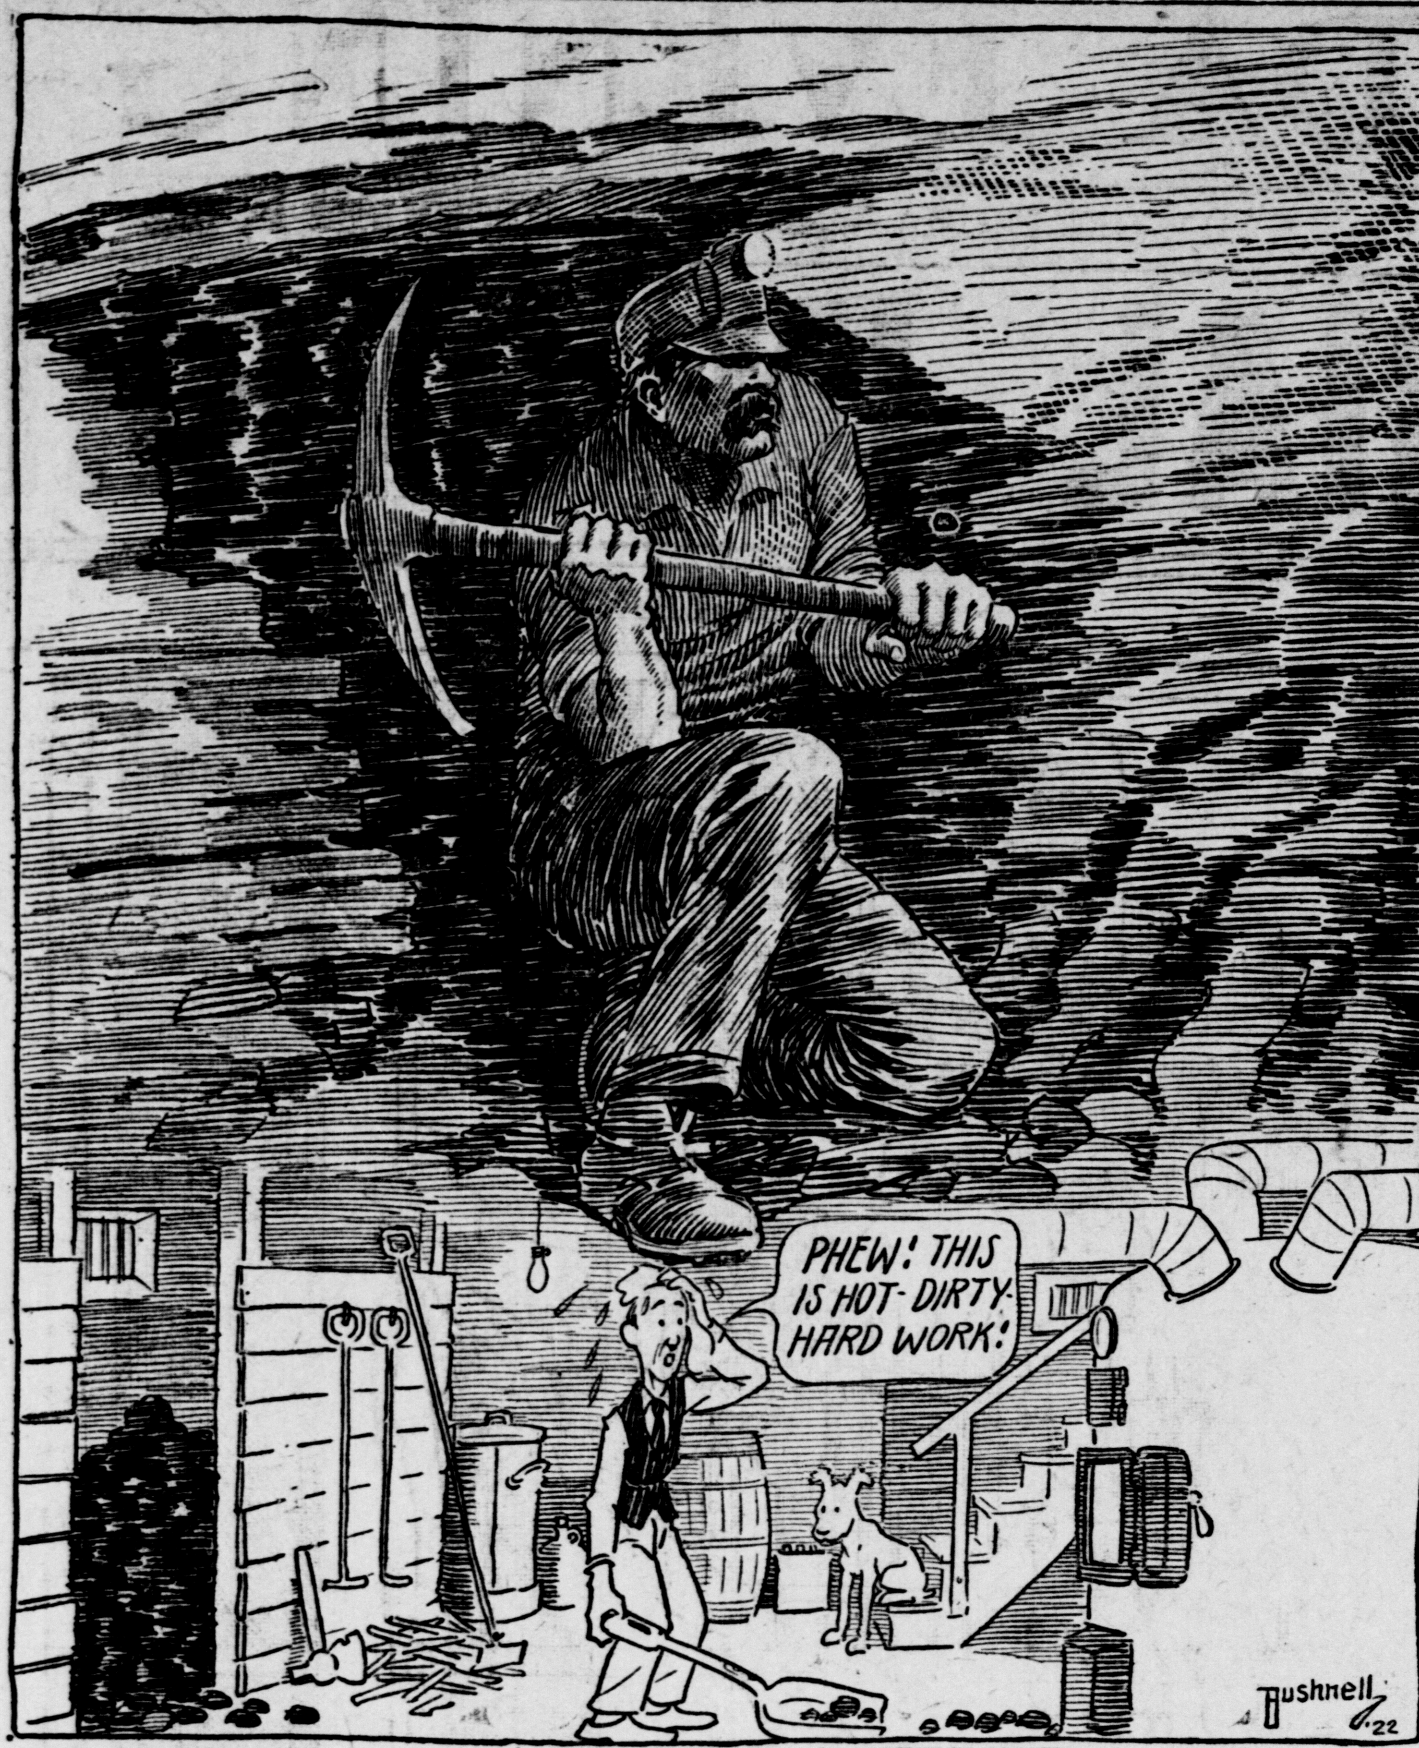

When it comes to the matter of manufacturing, Ada is something of a center. The housewife may serve pickles in cut glassware, use the best of flour, cool the punch with ice, serve ice cream, sweep her floors with a good broom, make her beds with cotton mattresses, live in a house of brick, concrete and iron and feed her cows on alfalfa meal, all of it made right here in Ada. Besides this she may use compound in her cooking made from cottonseed oil produced at the Ada mill. We call this a pretty fair start towards a manufacturing center. When we get a pottery, a cotton mill, a peanut mill and a few more such enterprises Ada will be very much on the map.

The tariff measure was enacted as a measure of protection to the Eastern manufacturers, but they are not yet satisfied. They are now demanding that the immigration laws be made more liberal so that they can get cheaper labor. Every time a tariff bill is introduced the plea is made that it is for the purpose of protecting American labor from the pauper labor of Europe, but now the mask is off. The interests prove that they do not care a rap about the American laborers. They are perfectly willing for the families of American laborers to go hungry if they can fill their places with cheap foreign laborers.

With the approach of Christmas we shall probably see the usual run of jokes about the wife buying a Christmas present for her husband and charging it to his account. That is all right as a joke, but since half of everything is hers by right, what is the difference between that and the husband buying her a present and charging it to his account? In the case of some chinchy old guys this is the only way a submissive wife has of pulling his leg, anyway.

It is hog killing time about the county today, we are informed. We pity the man who does not like spare ribs and back-bone, for he loses much of the enjoyment of life.

Reparations Conference Breaks

(Kansas City Journal)

The inevitable discord which characterizes every official consideration of the reparations problem arose in the conference of premiers in London. Germany submitted loan and reparations proposals which were rejected by the Allies. France and Great Britain are at odds, although the Bonar Law government is more favorable to France than was that of Lloyd George. Premier Poincare demanded penalties and guarantees "of a military character" for the fulfillment of German obligations. This amounts to an armed invasion and occupation of the Ruhr valley, the great German industrial center. Poincare represents that extreme side of French public sentiment which demands fulfillment of the German obligations even if another war is incurred.

Such a move was opposed by Bonar Law, the same as Lloyd George opposed similar suggestions when he was in office. Mussolini, the Italian premier, was indefinite in his stand.

The attempt to adjust the reparations dilemma suffered the same fate as the preceding ones. European statesmanship has demonstrated itself to be entirely incapable of handling this important matter as it should be handled. There is always the aggressive and sometimes "mad" statesmanship of France demanding immediate military action and enforced payment, basing its claims on the supposition that Germany is able to pay.

Opposed to this theory has been the more conservative government of Great Britain, which has acted on the belief that Germany should be given time to bring about her own reconstruction before the indemnity demands are pressed. There have been extensions of time, much wrangling, many suggested remedies, and little or no progress. The problem of reparations is as far from solution as it has ever been.

The present Allied premiers had nothing to do with formulating the peace terms and the indemnity demands. They are in a sense a new generation of leaders, but they are no more capable of handling the problems arising from the treaty than were Lloyd George and Clemenceau.

Europe is still unable to produce a type of leadership that will lead her out of her predicament. The present conference had adjourned until January 2 without having made any appreciable headway.

The Governor's Trial

(Ardmoreite)

Governor Robertson, charged with bribery, will not be tried during his term of office.

Whether this is to his advantage or not is hard to say.

Suit was filed against him in Oklahoma on the bribery charge, by County Attorney James Hepburn, Judge Mark L. Bozarth of Okmulgee was disqualified. The governor asked for a change of venue, and after a long delay, the case was set for trial at Ada, on December 12, under special Judge Thomas A. Edwards, of Cordell.

Then District Judge Bolen of Ada filed application for a writ of prohibition to prevent Judge Edwards from hearing the case. Hearing on the petition was held before the supreme court and the writ was granted, on the ground that, as set forth in the application, none but a resident judge had authority to call a term of court.

When a change of venue was taken to Ada, the supreme court appointed Judge Edwards to hear the case. In granting the writ of prohibition on Judge Bolen's application, the chief justice announced that the appointment of the special judge was made with the presumption that his appointment would automatically invest the special judge with authority to call a term of court.

As the situation now stands, date for the trial is indefinite. It is not certain whether the case is to go on the regular criminal docket at Ada, or whether, at the next session of district court there, the court will set a date for its hearing under the special judge.

District court is now in session at Ada, and the governor will be a private citizen when he comes the next regular session, will not come until after the first of the year.

That would mean, unless some further action for an earlier hearing intervenes, that to trial.

It also means that Prosecutor Hepburn of Okmulgee county will not be on hand to represent the state, since his term of office expires on the 8th of January, and he will take up his duties on that date as superior judge of Okmulgee County.

Prosecutor Hepburn has been very zealous to put the governor on trial. He filed the original charges, and his zeal has not flagged in the least. Whether his successor will prosecute the case with the same vigor remains to be seen.

The governor issued a statement Friday saying that he was annoyed by the further delay, and that he had been eager, throughout, for a speedy trial.

It rather looks as though he will fare better for the delay. Besides Hepburn being out of it, it is probable that as a private citizen the jury would be more lenient with him.

DO YOU WONDER?

Asks This Lady, "That I'm a Believer in Cardui?"—Had Been So Weak She Had to Go to Bed.

Osawatimie, Kans.—Mrs. E. E. Keast, formerly of Illinois, residing here, says: "We moved to this state eleven years ago, and I had good health for a long while; and then some year or so ago I had a bad sick spell. . . .

"I got so weak I couldn't go. I couldn't stand on my feet at all. I had to go to bed. I suffered a great deal. I was so nervous I felt I couldn't live. I tried medicines, and everything; had the best of attention, yet I wasn't able to get up. I lay for three months, not able to do anything.

"My husband is a bill poster and has circulars distributed. One day there came to be a Ladies Birthday Almanac among his circulars. I read it, and told some of the family to get me a bottle of Cardui. . . .

"I quit all other medicines and took it (Cardui) faithfully, and two weeks from the time I began to take Cardui I was out of bed—better than for months.

"I kept it up and continued to improve until I was a well woman.

"Do you wonder that I am a believer in Cardui? I certainly am. And I am sure there is no better tonic made for women than Cardui."

High School News

Prof. Tatum in Charge.

Assembly exercises at the High school Friday were in charge of Prof. Tatum of the high school faculty. Prof. W. A. Hill, principal, declared that the program was one of the best and most interesting rendered this year.

It consisted of a piano solo by Miss Maurine Charlton, Clarinet solo by Drew Page, tuba solo by Frank Potts and a vocal solo by Mozelle Hunter for the musical part; a short talk by Prof. R. R. Robinson, head of the training school department of the Teachers College.

Prof. Robinson devoted most of his time comparing other high schools of the state, which he has visited, with the Ada high school. His talk was well received by the student body.

Representatives of the Norman

Howard post of the American Legion also participated in the program. The prize for the best essay of "How the American Legion can Best Serve America" was won by Miss Estelle Jackson, and she was presented with the medal by the legionnaires. The essay won second prize in the state and has been sent to the national contest.

Miss Nell Kent reports good prospects for her basketball team. A large number of girls are interested in the preliminary work and Miss Kent said that she expected to have a good number of games for the team this season. Her tentative lineup: Nora Keithley and Edith Fryer at forwards, Pearl Harrison first center, Eloise Price second center, Loyal Sneed and Vera Asley at guards.

Sophomores had charge of the assembly exercises Monday morning. A play from Shakespeare was given which was the principal entertainment. Miss Geraldine House rendered a piano solo.

Frank Potts, out-going captain of the football team, made his last appearance as such to the student body, introducing the new captain, Vester Willoughby. Vester made a short talk in which he set forth his intention to do his best with the squad in 1922 and received the assurances of Prof. W. A. Hill and the student body that he would have a whole hearted support in his efforts.

A TWICE TOLD TALE

One of Interest to Our Readers.

Good news bears repeating, and when it is confirmed after a long lapse of time, even if we hesitated to believe it at first hearing, we feel secure in accepting its truth now. The following experience of an Ada woman is confirmed after four years.

Mrs. J. W. Smith, 7th and Johnston Sts., gave the following statement on February 28th, 1917: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been a great benefit to me and have my heartiest endorsement. My kidneys acted irregularly, my head ached, and at times I was awfully dizzy. Doan's Kidney Pills, had been used in my family with such good results that I tried them. I also, received fine relief and it was but a short time before I was absolutely all right again."

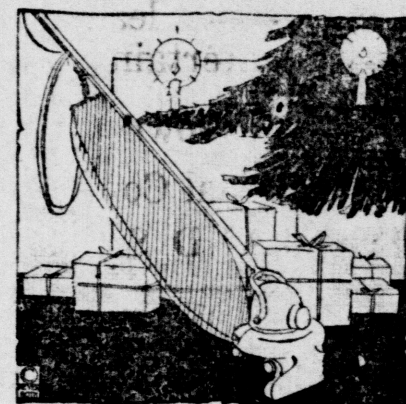

On May 2, 1921, Mrs. Smith said: "I have had no reason to change my opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills since I endorsed them in 1917. They are certainly wonderful kidney medicine."

CUBAN PRESIDENT DECLARES COPPER SUPPLY IN STATE
(By the Associated Press)
HAVANA, Cuba, Dec. 13.—Immense and rich deposits of iron and copper exist in Cuba, declared President Alfredo Zayas in his message at the opening session of the current congress, and the government proposes to aid their development in every way possible.
From the copper mines at Matanzas, Pinar del Rio, he points out, there were mined in the first six months of this fiscal year, 84,352 tons of 22 percent copper, and the field has only been scratched. Prospecting for oil and mineral is going on constantly in that province.
When gold is used to thread cloth one ounce can be drawn to a length of 1,300 miles.

LUTE DOUGE URGES POULTRY BREEDERS TO EXHIBIT BIRDS
Hey there, Mr. Chicken raiser, get busy for our show 28, 29 and 30 and do yourself proud, by making it the largest in number that has ever been cooped in Pontotoc county. The Merchants Association is offering some very liberal premiums, "cash on the barrel head", for the different breeds, for best cock, cockrel, pullet, hen and pen, also to the turkey raisers they are offering premiums "worth while" your trouble of bringing them in. Now, come on folks, and let's show the merchants that we appreciate their liberality in trying to help us to put the best paying industry on a higher level in our county. Let your birds out and let the people see them. I have lots of folks tell me they have fine birds but don't care about showing them. Well, let me tell you if I was one of your nice birds, that was better than any in the show, and you did not bring me in and let me see the other birds, and strut around in a cage, as much as to say "Just look at me." I certainly would go on a strike. I wouldn't crow, lay, or cackle, it would be as quiet as a grave yard around our house.
Now folks, we have bought some more steel coops and our show room will look as nice as The Heart of America, but we cannot make it a success unless you help by getting in line and help push. While Pontotoc county is on the map of chicken-dom, at present we cannot sit down and take it easy, the other fellows are at work right now, intending to give us a "lickin'" next year.
So bring out your birds and help swell the crowd. We'll take care of them, feed them and help you dress them up as much as we can, clean their feet, grease their combs and wattles with vaseline, make them look as nice as you can. If you do not win, get the pattern of the winner in your "Noggin" go home with a determination to give the fellow that beat you a race for his money next year, be a sport, it's no disgrace to get beat, there's lots of room at the top of the ladder, you may slip back once in awhile but keep at it and you will get there.
The premium list will be out in a few days. I will send it to all the breeders that I know, if you do not get one do not feel slighted, drop me a card, or call me up at 537-R and I will mail it out at once. If you fellows will get behind and push we'll make Walter Bowers earn his money. He will be the judge, and a dandy nice fellow you will find him.
Yours truly, for at least 100 hens on every farm in Pontotoc county and at least 500 birds at our show December 28; 29 and 30. Come on and Boost!
Lute Douge, Sec'y Pontotoc county Poultry Association.

Why Cement Sacks Are Filled Upside Down

The curious method of filling portland cement sacks—filling them upside down after they have been tied—is a striking example of progress made in industrial processes.

Until twenty years ago, cement sacks were filled practically as all other sacks always had been. You had a huge bin of this finer-than-flour material. A workman at the door of the bin hung a sack up, with its mouth open, on a wooden frame and filled it with an ordinary shovel. Then he set it on a scale, and with a hand scoop adjusted the weight of the contents to the exact 94 pounds required, after which he tied the sack by hand and tossed it on a truck to be hauled into a freight car.

That was the way as little as twenty years ago, and no one had thought much of doing it differently.

But now what happens?

The cement is taken from the bin by an automatic conveyor—a moving belt or bucket chain—and elevated and dumped into the hopper of a filling machine. This is a small bin with an elaborate mechanism including a fan inside; and at the bottom of it is a 1-inch spout through which the cement flows like water. The filler sits at the spout. Sacks have been brought to him already tied at the top but with an opening guarded by a valve at the bottom. The filler slips the opening over the spout and turns on the cement. When the sack is filled to exactly 94 pounds it tips a scale, automatically turns off the cement, and with a little push from the filler falls on another moving belt that carries it out and drops it at the freight car door.

By the old method, a team of four men could fill and load 1,600 sacks a day. By the new method, a similar team can fill and load 8,000.

The filling machine is costly, and royalties must be paid on the valve sack process, but the new arrangement has meant a considerable labor saving. It has meant especially that the manufacturers have been able to get their product out more promptly to users during the rush period of summer and fall. For in that period labor of the kind required for sacking and loading is generally hard to get.

Even with the improvements, a medium sized plant—one producing a million barrels of cement a year and employing not more than 300 people altogether—must normally employ 60 people in its sacking and loading department.

Sherlock Holmes Is Lived Again in John Barrymore
Sherlock Holmes has reached the screen at last—and in the person of John Barrymore! The famous detective will make his first appearance in a motion picture in this city at the American theatre on Thursday for 3 days in the Goldwyn picture called "Sherlock Holmes." The photoplay is one of the "big twenty" productions to which Goldwyn is confining its producing activities this year and is in every way a super-feature.
As the immortal detective, John Barrymore has found a role worthy to rank with his dual part in "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" and his characterization is said to be just as vivid and compelling as in the Stevenson story. The screen "Sherlock Holmes" is an adaptation of the stage play which William Gillette made from the A. Conan Doyle stories and which he used as a starring vehicle for so many years.
The cast supporting Mr. Barrymore is one of the most brilliant seen in any Goldwyn picture. It includes Gustave von Seyffertitz as Moriarty, the big power behind the criminal elements of London; Roland Young as Dr. Watson; Carol Dempster as Alice Faulkner; and a host of others well known on stage and screen—notably Hedda Hopper, Anders Randolph, William H. Powell, Robert Schable, Percival Knight, Reginald Denny, Albert Brunning, Robert Fischer, Lumsden Hare, Louis Wolheim and Jerry Devine. Albert Parker directed the photoplay.
"Sherlock Holmes" on the screen spells mystery, adventure, thrills suspense and swift action just as the various tales of the great detective did between the covers of a book. No one will want to miss seeing it.

John Balthrop is Bested in Clash With Health Tree
John W. Balthrop insists that cold weather as well as white mule or Pontotoc corn will cause a fellow to lose his head.
Leaving his car running Tuesday morning while he rushed into his house two miles north of the city, he returned threw his car into low gear shoved in the gas and started. As he headed for a tree, he urgently requested the gears to relax, but they would not.
The wheels in his head did not turn fast enough he says to tell him to cut off the gas, and the car and tree met, with the result that the tree got the best of it. John says it was worth the money.

Turkey Refuses to Set Aside Home for Stranded Armenians
(By the Associated Press)
LAUSANNE, Dec. 13.—Turkey refused at today's session of the near east conference to assign any special part of Turkey as a national home for the Armenians. Ismet Pasha declared this would mean another attempt to dismember Turkey.
Ismet Pasha was irreconcilable on other points containing the treaty of minorities in Turkey. Besides declaring Turkey would not set aside an inch of Turkish soil for a national Armenian home, he said Turkey would not accept the regulations of the rights of minorities by an international commission in Constantinople or elsewhere.

Barrett Orders His Guards be Removed From War Territory

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 13.—Adjutant General Charles F. Barrett today ordered the withdrawal of a detachment of national guard troops at Madill, sent there for the protection of state authorities investigating the discovery of a number of alleged stolen automobiles in Marshall county.

The order was issued, the adjutant general explained, following receipt by Acting Governor M. E. Trapp of a telegram from Madill citizens protesting the presence of state troops there. The officers in charge of the detachment had already advised the department that troops were not needed, he added.

COLLEGE NOTES

Miss Francisco was called suddenly to Oswego, Kansas, on account of her mother's death there last Thursday.

Mr. R. R. Robison of the college faculty recently made a trip to Detroit and on the journey visited several of the largest teachers colleges in America. He spent a day at the teachers college at Cedar Falls, Iowa, visiting the training school and the department of Education. The enrollment at this institution, 3200 students, seems large, but the Cedar Falls college is the only teachers college in Iowa, while the normal schools of Oklahoma have as large or larger enrollment taken together.

Mr. Robinson then spent a day at Ypsilanti, Michigan, and then went to Detroit. While in that city he attended the combined meeting of the National Vocational Society, the Mid-west Vocational Society and the National Vocational Guidance society. Mr. Robinson states that over two thousand persons were in attendance at the meeting, which took place in Detroit's new $2,500,000 high school building.

After the meeting he visited the Terre Haute, Indiana, college and the Normal, Illinois, College. The four schools which he visited are the oldest and largest teachers colleges in America. Mr. Robinson states that the chief difference between those institutions and Oklahoma's normal colleges is in the size and equipment. The Terre Haute school with a student body about the size of East Central has five large buildings, each about as large as the administration building of the local college.

The college orchestra has now been in existence for nearly two weeks and is working hard to get in shape to appear in public. Mr. Pentem this morning expressed himself as well satisfied with the progress of the work so far. As soon as the orchestra has become a little more efficient it will take part in all the college meetings, where an orchestra can appear.

The orchestra contains eleven violins, three cornets, three drums, seven saxophones, one baritone, two horns, piano and one bass, making a total of thirty-four instruments. Professor A. L. Pentem is in charge of the organization, which practices about four times each week.

Assembly was called at ten o'clock this morning. Mr. Robinson, sponsor of the Pesagi was in charge, and opened the meeting by explaining what had been accomplished by the staff of the yearbook already. He was followed by Miss Edna Driskill, the editor-in-chief, who told what was planned for the annual. T. K. Treadwell, business manager, announced that arrangements had been made with the photographers to take the pictures of the students, who were urged to have this done immediately. He was followed by several faculty members and students who urged that the students get behind the staff and work with them to put out the best annual the school has ever published.

Mr. Pentem announced a band concert for Friday night at the college auditorium. The concert will begin immediately after a practice basketball game in the college gymnasium between the college team and the DeMolay team from Moldenville. The game will begin at 6:45 sharp in order to permit the spectators to attend the band concert which will follow.

Quarrel Over Use of Car Leads Boy to Face Charges

(By the Associated Press)

CLINTON, Dec. 13.—"Bus" McFarland, 21, son of a prominent rancher near here, is held in the county jail today on a charge of murder following the death last night of his brother, Jim, 44, who succumbed to knife wounds received a week ago.

The brothers quarreled over the use of their father's car and a fight with knives ensued, according to officers. Jim was brought to a hospital here suffering from several ugly wounds. The younger brother, officers say, wanted to use the machine to fill a "date" and the older brother objected, saying he needed the automobile himself.

WARNING!

The United States Government together with reputable manufacturers are now carrying on an investigation against the illicit house to house canvassers who sell such merchandise as Blankets, Hosiery, Silks, Linens, etc., that are made purposely for grafting sales agents to peddle.

The peddler usually makes such exaggerated and luring claims for his wares that the prospective buyer forgets all about the possibility for a fake and "falls for it" only to be sadly disappointed.

Remember it is just as risky buying goods from unknown manufacturers, peddlers and strangers at your door, as it is buying oil stocks of an unknown company. No person or manufacturer can do the impossible.

All reputable merchandise is sold here in Ada by one or the other of our representative stores. Goods made by reputable manufacturers would not be allowed to be "peddled" by individuals or to have untrue impossible claims made for them. Nor would our local merchants dare to sell you merchandise of the character sold by these grafters.

Hallowe'en "Open House at Elks Lodge.

The Elks celebrated Hallowe'en with a social gathering attended by themselves and lady friends and relatives. The hall had been decorated in a manner highly appropriate to the occasion in which cats, witches and other creatures of the night were to be seen in profusion. Here, too, was a cauldron as of old where the witches danced and chanted their prophesies of things to come until one thought himself somewhere in another sphere of existence.

It was amid such ghostly surroundings that they gathered and spent an evening in dancing, fortune telling and playing games. During the evening other couples who had attended functions elsewhere dropped in to share the merriment. Delicious punch and doughnuts, such as the "lassies" make, were served.

One of the principles of the order of Elks is to revere the memory of departed brothers. At the hour of 11 they halt all proceedings and pay a silent tribute to the memory of those who have gone on before. On this occasion the usual silent token and responses by the members present were given while all stood in respectful silence.

This duty being performed the gathering returned to its program of the evening. Finally the hour of breaking up arrived and the merry makers, light of heart, faced the discomforts of the rain on their homeward journeys.

W. B. M. S. Gives
Hallowe'en Social

What is said by many to be the most enjoyable party ever given by the ladies of the First Baptist church, was the Hallowe'en entertainment in the church basement Monday evening.

The ladies all came masked and were each sold to the highest bidder by auctioneer, J. A. Riddling. One lady with blond hair and painted face, with a hat and scarf of black fur, created much interest and merriment by her large hands and feet and generally awkward appearance. Bids on her came in slowly as all were just a bit leery of her. She was finally bid in by one of the women through pity for her unpopularity, and when unmasking time came, she proved to be the pastor.

The decorations and games were all in keeping with the season, the Valley of Death being a feature.

A short but interesting program was much appreciated. The small niece of Miss Goss, gave a violin solo. The young lady attracted much favorable comment by her ability as a violinist.

Little Jaunita Strickland, a general favorite, gave a Hallowe'en reading. Mrs. Boud, who has always contributed so much to the music of the church, gave a piano solo. As an encore, she rendered a number of her own composition.

Virginia Abney made her first church appearance with her violin and played so acceptably that she will be pressed into service often.

Russell Boud closed the program with a song and as usual was heartily received. Russell is a favorite with the Baptists and has great future for him.

The building was literally thronged throughout the evening. Pie and coffee were served at a late hour by Mrs. J. O. Abney and her committee to whom much is due for the success of the affair.

Bible Class
Gives Hallowe'en Party

On Monday evening the members of the Progressive Bible class of the Presbyterian church assembled at the City Hall to make merry in fancy dress and masque. There were gypsies, turkish maids, sailors, soldiers and even the staid and stately George Washington himself, but vying for honors were Miles Griggs as a "lady" and Marvin Harwell as "Josiah."

Shadow pantomime, with unmasking was followed by various games causing much hilarity and glee.

The hall, in accordance with the spirit of the occasion, was daintily decorated with autumn leaves, witches, cats and pumpkins. The dim glow of candles in softly colored shades cast a glamour over all and caused the masqueraders to pause in their mad revels now and then and see if ghosts were nigh.

Refreshments of sandwiches, pumpkin, pies decorated with cat heads, and coffee were served, after which the spooks departed for parts unknown.

CHILDREN'S PARTY FOR
J. GORDEN DERRICK

Mrs. Will Drick, assisted by Mrs. H. C. McCurry entertained her little son J. Gordon Tuesday night with a party at her home on West Seventeenth street. The house was decorated in suggestions of the Hallowe'en season. The little tots played until a late hour after which candies and fruits were enjoyed. They departed for home sleepy eyed but declaring it a jolly evening. Those entertained were Victor and Jack McCurry, Billie Derrick, Little Maxine McCurry, Maxine Derrick and Master J. Gordon.

Hallowe'en Party
For Simpson's Employees

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Emory of 1,021 Belmont avenue entertained with a masquerade Hallowe'en party Tuesday evening in honor of Simpson's Inc. employees and a few additional friends. The rooms were decorated with ferns, chrysanthemums, and Hallowe'en suggestions. The evening was spent with Hallowe'en games followed by a delightful cafeteria lunch. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sumner, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Harkrider, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moore, Mrs. J. A. Biles, Laura Skinner, Lillie Cole, Nettie Sparks, Miss Beuna Nolen and Mr. E. B. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory were assisted in entertaining by Misses Mary and Constance Waggoner.

The Frogs Hop

Hallowe'en night proved an ideal setting for an appearance of the Frogs, who came forth and revealed on the night of witches. The reveling took place in the Harris hotel. About twenty-five couples gathered there for their hop, chaperoned by Miss Jones, Miss Lyday and Mrs. Burton. The evening was spent in dancing, drinking punch and general enjoyment. The Tadpoles were in charge of the arrangements.

At intervals during the dancing a harvest moon appeared and illuminated the Frogs and their partners. Colored lights were also used, which produced beautiful lighting effects. Confetti and serpentine were abundant, while the hall was gay with ribbons, balloons and all those decorations that pertain to Hallowe'en.

CURWOOD'S NOVEL
FINELY SCREENED

What Bret Harte was to the Sierras, James Oliver Curwood is to the Canadian Rockies. If he was not their discoverer, he is at least, their romantic. While acting as special investigator for the Canadian Government, Mr. Curwood was charmed by this unspoiled section of Nature's wonderland, which he has made the scene of so many of his stories—"The Valley of Silent Men." That little Eden of the North, over which three snow-clad sentinal mountains keep perpetual watch is no myth.

But with all his skill as a word-painter Mr. Curwood could only indicate the natural beauties of this Northern Paradise. Even the "still" camera and the painter's canvass can capture only isolated bits of natural beauty which seem so real to the spectator can hardly realize their truth. But now motion pictures, those marvelous simulacra of life and action have followed Mr. Curwood's trail, and in filming "The Valley of Silent Men" amid the very scenes which the author described in his thrilling romance, will bring home to million of screen devotees the natural wonders of the Canadian Rockies.

Cosmopolitan Productions on acquiring the motion-picture rights to "The Valley of Silent Men," which comes to the McSwain theatre Thursday, sent a company up into the mountains in the early spring before the snows began to melt. For twelve weeks they camped and took pictures about Banff and Lake Louise, and the camera caught that miracle of nature—the coming of Spring in the snowy wilderness. Chester Lyons, the cameraman, and Harry Wild, his assistant, frequently took "shots" of fifteen miles with the telephoto lens, and owing to the clarity of the air the visibility was wonderful.

Eugene von Kellar who has been in the employ of Boggs Motor Co. of this place, is moving his family to Coalgate where he will be similarly employed.

The Bank of England is sometimes called "The Old Lady of Threadneedle Street."

Fore!-!-!

The typer of these lines would admire greatly to see old sol a raisin' his henna head over the houses east of the Katy on Sunday mornin'. He would also admire to have the guy in the weather department that regulates the blow of the wind confine his activity for the day to pre-mortem political arguments and lay off of this wild disturbance of the ether such as was had last Sunday. This aint March, its November. The object of all these desires is that the typer of these lines aint set a golf ball on a tee for 7 hole days.

And they aint no grander thrill to be had this side of El Paso, than to set a shiny little freckled golf ball on a little sand hill, square off accordin' to Mr. Hoyle, take a good ol' healthy swing and see that little pill sail off thru the air for a clean—I aint saying how far, but there aint no slices when you're playing chair golf. They aint a chance to git thru the first two holes with less than a par on each of 'em, and if guy hadn't come in and bothered me as I imaginin a drive on three and made me slice over on the R. Ry. I could have got thru that jorer hole with at least a 5. A guy shore hates to take them penalties. But 13 aint no slouch score on the first 3 holes of that course. Ast anybody.

No. 4 aint so bad if a feller gets off right and if he gets into 5 without havin' some arguments with his disposition comin' thru them rocks somebody ought to pin the golf crow de geer on him. They a bench down back of 5 hole with a sign on it that says "Say it with flowers" the typer of these lines cant remember a single foresome that he's ever been in indulgin' in any botanical argumest especially on that part of the course. It was a rotten shame that a little rain had to come up and git the greens so wet we cound't go on past 6.

Can't ever tell about this weather in this state; its like politics. Had a 26 on them six holes which aint but 3 over par which would be a 1 golf even if you was wearing knickers and scotch plaid sox. Think next time I go out I'll tee off at six and jist consider myself finishin that round. There aint no tellin' when I'll have another 26.

FILED FOR OFFICE; CANNOT BE FOUND

Name of J. H. Anderson on Ticket, But no One Admits Filing.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 4.—City election officials are not puled oved an unprecedented situation which has set political circles buzzing with curiosity as the time for the general election draws near. A republican candidate for justice of the peace in the Oklahoma City district has disappeared as completely as if the earth had opened up and swallowed him.

Local newspaper men have begun a search for him saying that three men in the city bearing the name of the missing man all deny any aspirations of political nature and officers of the state election board so far have been unable to gather any information which might clear up the mystery.

J. M. Anderson is the name of the nominee but the J. M. Anderson living at the address given the election board at the time of the filing of his candidacy denies that he is a candidate for any office and says that he is devoting all his time to the plumbing business. Another J. M. Anderson at a different address asserts emphatically that thought of running for office has never entered his mind and that he has never participated actively in any political campaign.

Still another J. M. Anderson, this one a negro, postively denies any ambition to hold an office and declares that he is not a candidate for justice of the peace.

NEW NON-STOP AIR RECORD SET

Coast to Coast Flyers Forc-

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 4.—Lieuts. Oakley Kelley and John MacReady, attempting a trans-continental flight, were forced down at Fort Benjamin Harrison near here at 9:15 o'clock this morning.

Leaky Tank Forced Landing
DAYTON, O., Nov. 4.—Major T. H. Bane, commandant of McCook Field at 10:15 o'clock today received a telegram from Lieut. Kelley saying the T-2 is down near Indianapolis. Lieut. Kelley said the tank in the plane sprung a leak 400 miles out of San Diego and that the tanks were completely drained of gasoline when forced landing was made.

Past Records Broken
WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—All in their attempted flight across the continent without a stop, Lieuts. MacReady and Kelley flying in the army plane T-2 are believed by air service officials here to have set a new distance record by their non-stop flight from San Diego to Indianapolis.

Airplane in Storm
DAYTON, Nov. 4.—Lieuts. J. C. MacReady and Oakley Kelley, army aviators who were forced to land near Indianapolis, Ind., this morning after completing 2,060 miles of their attempted non-stop flight from San Diego to New York arrived at McCook field here at 12:15. They left Fort Benjamin Harrison at 10:15 in a plane they obtained at the fort.

In giving their first official report of the flight, the airmen revealed that during their nearly 30 hours in the air, they were in the midst of a storm and rain for 11 hours and thirty minutes. In crossing the mountains the wind was so strong that at times threatened to turn their ship over.

BOWEN OUT ON $20,000 BAIL

Confessed Slayer of Brother Will Plead Emotional Stress as Cause

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 4.—Alva R. Bowen, confessed slayer of his brother, Walter C. Bowen, was released late today on bond of $20,000 after pleading not guilty to a charge of first degree murder filed against him. Bowen shot and killed his brother at a railroad station here when the latter stepped from the train in custody of an officer who was bringing him back to Oklahoma City from Muskogee to face a charge of deserting his wife and two children. They had been living in miserable circumstances.

The slayer is expected to plead that he shot Walter under emotional stress because Walter, it is alleged, had been forcing his attentions on Gertrude Bowen, his wife, for years.

Wife Offers Aid
Bowen said that his former wife, Gertrude Bowen of Bartlesville, had telegraphed him to know if she could be of any assistance. He replied that his friends were doing all possible and that her presence was unnecessary.

"I will see that my brother's family is taken care of for the present," he said. "I have the money and have instructed the Welfare oard to take care of them and that I will pay the bill. I don't see how any one could live in the circumstances they are in."

He declared his fate was a matter of supreme indifference. He said it took more than a court decree to divorce a couple married as long as he and his wife were. They were divorced about four months ago.

HI AND CUBS HIT OPPONENTS HARD

Guardsmen and Printers Losers in First Game of City League.

Playing as pre-season dope had predicted, four teams made their debut on the armory court Tuesday evening in the opening caging contests of the city basketball league season with the Tiger Cubs and High school emerging victorious in two fast contests.

The game between the high school and guardsmen was the most interesting, it being much faster and closer played than the game between the Cubs and Ada News squad. High school won the opening game 13 to 10. Score stood tied 5 to 5 at the end of the first half and the high school players, staging a rally as the guardsmen weakened from lack of wind, gained a 13 to 5 lead.

With four minutes left to play, the guardsmen made their first point of the second half with a free goal. The point added pep to the efforts of the guardsmen who managed to loop two goals just before the whistle blew and brought the score up to 13 and 10.

First half of the game was played with the guardsmen continually threatening to score. Being unable to take advantage of opportunities forced the guardsmen to give way as the high school took advantage of all breaks and the score was easily tied by the youngsters. High school men outwitted the guardsmen in the second half and won.

It was different in the Cubs-News game. From the start the printers were out of luck and dozens of shots at goal from the field were fruitless. College men were looping them from all corners of the court and the score at the end of the game was 22 to 6. Only one field goal was made by the News squad in the second half. Johns scored all of the News' points.

Jobs and Kelley played best for the Cubs. McKeown showed up well at guard for the News and proved his ability at breaking up plays of the Cubs. Team work of the guardsmen and Cubs was superior to that of their opponents.

Rayburn and Molloy played best for the high school with Wanner and Turner showing up well for the guardsmen. Tinkle refereed the high school-guardsmen game and Dorsey refereed the Cubs-News game.

EMPTY STOCKING FUND INCREASE

Liberal Contributions Are Received From Ada Business Men.

Lee Daggs$ 5

Total to date$50
Sixty little Indian dolls have also been contributed to the fund.

If you knew that a dime would bring a smile of real pleasure to the face of some poor, shivering child, would you furnish the dime?

That is a question which anyone would answer in the affirmative. Give your dime to the Santa Claus Club, organized by the United Charities and Ada News for the purpose of bringing joy to the poor kiddies of Ada this Christmas.

Already several of Ada's generous people have responded and their contributions will open the way to sunshine in more than one home Christmas day.

Mrs. Orville Sneed, secretary of the United Charities who will handle the money and have charge of the selection of fruits and gifts for the poor kiddies, stated today that the outlook for the success of the Santa Claus Club empty stocking fund was growing brighter "I believe we will have a nice sum contributed by Christmas," she said.

THOMPSON'S DRUG STORE

Those who wish to contribute to the fund and join the Santa Claus Club should send their donation to Mrs. Sneed with the name. Those desiring to make small donations may do so by placing the coins in empty stockings in local business houses.

Churches are expected to join the club Sunday. Sunday school classes are also promising to take up the matter. Mrs. Sneed declared it was a worthy cause and that she would furnish names of many Ada children who will be denied their share of the Yuletide joy, unless Ada's people furnish it for them.
